GEORGEA KOVANIS SHOPPING

February 6, 2005

Spring is the new winter!

It's not too early to think spring -- especially when pronouncements such as these are being made for the new season:

•Small is the new big! Dwell magazine says houses under 2,200 square feet are hot, hot, hot.

•Coral is the new pink! Clinique has a new lipstick for spring called Blushing Coral. Objets d'Envy, an online store that specializes in crystal jewelry, is highlighting a coral-colored crystal bracelet for Valentine's Day. It's $180 at www.objetsdenvy.com. And even though Bobbi Brown's cosmetic color palate for spring is called Rosy Pink, it features a combination blusher-lip color called Calypso Coral.

•Flats are the new heel! That's the spin from Amy Jo Gladstone, maker of spa slippers, including a comfy, velvet pair worn by Julia Roberts in "Oceans 12." Details: www.amyjogladstone.com.
